Mazapan School is a non-denominational school and does not discriminate against any individual in any way on the basis of age, race, color, gender, disability, sexual orientation, religion or belief, nationality, ethnic or national origin in the administration of its recruitment, admissions and educational policies.

Languages, special abilities and needs

Mazapan School is a non-profit, independent, college-preparatory day school enrolling more than 300 students in Pre K - Grade 12 (ages 4-18). Our curriculum is designed for the motivated student who is able to meet the demands of a challenging academic curriculum and who thrives in a stimulating, diverse and experiential environment. Mazapan School occasionally provides educational support services for a limited number of students with mild specific learning needs.
